Bravo Award 2014 Nomination Form

The Bravo Award is presented to a business that has made a significant contribution to an arts organization by making a financial contribution, by making an in-kind donation, or by providing volunteers for the organization. The Award is presented at Bravo for the Arts, an annual event presented by the arts community to thank the business community for its contributions.

A list of past winners can be found on the TAF website at: http://www.tippecanoearts.org/awardbravo.htm

2014 Bravo Award Nomination Form

To submit a nomination for a Bravo Award, you must be a member or an arts/culture organization located in Tippecanoe County in good standing as a member organization of the Tippecanoe Arts Federation. It will be your responsibility to see that your nominee attends the Bravo for the Arts. The award recipients are not announced in advance of the event.

Please respond to the following questions in the space provided on this form.

1. Please give a brief description of the relationship between your organization and the business, including how long you have had an association with the business, the pattern and type of support your organization has received, or any other pertinent information. It is important to show the business has had a pattern of support over time.

2. Please provide at least two examples of how the effect of contributions by this business to your organization enhances arts and culture in our community.
